History	:

By the Apostolic Decree “Ad Lucem Sancti Evangelii” of 31 March 1962 Pope John XXIII erected the Ecclesiastical Unit of Chanda separating three Civil districts namely, Wardha, Chanda and Adilabad from the Archdiocese of Nagpur. This new ecclesiastical unit was constituted as an “Ordinariate”. This Ordinariate was handed over to the Carmelites of Mary Immaculate (CMI) of the Syro-Malabar Rite.

Msgr. Januarius Palathuruthy CMI was appointed on 12 June 1962 as its first Ecclesiastical Superior with duties, privileges and faculties of an Apostolic Exarch. Since the official documents from Rome did not arrive on time the handing over of the mission territory did not take place on July 3, 1962 as was previously agreed upon. However, on July 3, 1962, on the feast of St. Thomas the Apostle, the first Syro-Malabar Liturgy was celebrated in the military chapel at Pulgaon, Wardha. Later, at a simple but impressive ceremony held at the Archbishop's House chapel Nagpur on 15 August 1962, the new ecclesiastical unit of Chanda was formally and canonically erected and the new Superior, Monsignor Januarius, CMI, was installed as its first Ecclesiastical Superior.

Seven CMI Priests, the pioneer missionaries of Chanda, who reached Ballarpur in 1962, were Frs. late Januarius Palathuruthy (Ordinary designate), late Silas, Joseph Velampampil, late Zacheus, Joseph Manjaly, late Felician and late Eugene.

The CMC Sisters (Thrissur) who came as pioneers were Srs. Rita (+), Teresa (+), Pulcheria and Euphemia (+). They took up the management of the military school at Pulgaon in 1962.

The “Ordinariate” was raised to the status of an Apostolic Exarchate on 29 July 1968 and Msgr. Januarius CMI was made its Apostolic Exarch. On 26 February 1977 by the Papal Bull “Nostra Ipsorum” Pope Paul VI established Chanda as a diocese and Msgr. Januarius CMI was appointed as its first Bishop. He was ordained Bishop at Ballarpur on 03 May 1977.

Bishop Januarius CMI retired on 15 May 1990 and Fr. Antony Moolchikuzhy CMI was appointed as the Administrator until Bp. Vijay Anand Nedumpuram CMI took charge on 03 July 1990.

Present Diocese of Chanda comprises the civil districts of Wardha, Chandrapur (Chanda) and Gadchiroli (new district as a result of bifurcation of Chandrapur district in 1982) in Maharashtra State.

The diocese of Chanda was bifurcated and the Diocese of Adilabad was formed on July 16, 1999 with the civil district of Adilabad in Andhra Pradesh and Fr. Joseph Kunnath CMI was appointed as its first bishop. On 6th Oct. 1999 was his Episcopal ordination at Mandamari and he was installed on the same day.

Bp. Ephrem Nariculam became the third bishop of the diocese of Chanda on 24 October 2014.

Ephrem Nariculam was born on 10 December 1960 at Nayarambalam in the Archdiocese of Ernakulam-Angamaly as the son of Late Thomas and Late Theresia Nariculam. Having completed his school education at St. George's School Vadel and Bhagavathivilasam School, Nayarambalam, Fr. Ephrem joined the Minor Seminary of the Archdiocese of Ernakulam-Angamaly. He had his Philosophy in Sacred Heart Seminary, Poonamallee and Theology in St. Joseph's Seminary, Mangalore.

On 27th December 1986 Mar Antony Cardinal Padiyara ordained him priest at St. Joseph's Church, Sanjopuram, for the Archdiocese of Ernakulam. Fr. Ephrem served the archdiocese as Assistant Vicar at St. Mary's Forane Church, Kanjoor (1987), St. Mary's Forane Church, Koratty (1988), St. Mary's Cathedral Basilica, Ernakulam (1989) and then as Vicar at St. Joseph's Church, Madakkal (1990-1992). Later he continued his higher studies at Vidyajyoti College of Theology, Delhi from where he obtained his Master's Degree in Theology.

1. BISHOP'S HOME (1962)

Bishop's Home, the residence of the Bishop of Chanda is situated at Ballarpur which is 16 kms south of District Head quarters, Chandrapur. Balharshah is said to have been founded by the Gond King Khandkya Bellal Sah (1437-62). Later Balharshah was renamed as Ballarpur and presently the railway station retains the name Balharshah. Since the establishment of the "Ordinariate of Chanda" in 1962, Bishop Januarius used the parish presbytery behind the Cathedral as the headquarters. Even after the Chanda Mission was raised to the status of a diocese in 1977, he continued to use the same building as his residence and secretariate. His successor Bishop Vijay Anand CMI has his residence and secretariate in the nearby building in the same campus. Sisters of various congregations rendered their service at the diocesan headquarters; SHSp (1989-1991)SJB(1991-1994),CMC(1994-1999),DM(1999-2003). This Church which is situated in the heart of Ballarpur town was blessed in 1937. The spiritual needs of the faithful were taken care of by a diocesan Priest from Sirpur Kaghaznagar till 1962. St. Theresa's Church has been functioning as the parish church and the Cathedral of the dioceses since 1977.

It was renamed as St. Thomas Cathedral on 23 March 1993. The mortal remains of Bishop Januarius CMI, the architect, visionary and the first Bishop of Chanda rests in this Cathedral. Most of the parishioners hail from different parts of the country and work in Ballarpur Paper Mills, Railways, WCLetc.

The Sisters of the Holy Spirit established their convent at Dilasagram, Bamini, 3 kms. away from here in 1975. They run an English Medium School, a Grihini School and a Social Work Centre. In the year of 2010 FDSHJ sisters started a convent in Bishops home campus and started rendering their service in Cathedral and Vianney Jubilee school.

From the beginning of Chanda Mission, Priests from Ballarpur used to celebrate Mass on every Sunday in a rented house and the congregation consisted of people employed in different parts of the town. Mass was offered for sometime in the English Church (St. Jude's) in the civil lines owned by the Anglicans. A mission station was established in Babupeth, 2 kms away from Gandhi Chowk, on the outskirts of Chandrapur town in 1968. It also served as the CMI Regional Superiors' house until a new provincial house was built at Bellampalli in 1971. A new parish church and presbytery were built in Ganesh Nagar, 2 kms away from Chandrapur bus stand, in 1990 under the supervision of Fr. Joseph Koikara CMI. In the year 2002 a hospital was started in the same campus. SD Sisters started a convent near the hospital and they are taking care of the unwanted people who are destitute. In the year 2012, Babupeth was elevated to an independent mission station.

The church here is one of the four churches /center handed over to the Diocese of Chanda in its beginning in 1962. Fr. Eugene Thomas CMI took over as the Priest-in-Charge of Wardha and chaplain of the military camp at Pulgaon in 1963. This practice was abandoned because the school management in Pulgaon was given up in the following year. Fr. Eugene Thomas constructed a presbytery and balbhavan for boys in 1964. The Sisters of St. John the Baptist established their first convent in India here in 1971.

VII. FORMATION HOUSES

1. Sant Vianney Gurukul

Rector : Fr. Binu Muthalakuzhiyil

Chanda had no diocesan minor seminary until 1991. The candidates for diocesan priesthood were sent to other seminaries. The dream to establish a diocesan minor seminary was fulfilled on 03 July 1991 when 09 candidates from diocese itself were recruited to the St. Thomas Minor Seminary. Since there was no building for the minor seminary, the first batch finished their first year course at different stations, namely Ballarpur, Shengaon in MS and Uttoor, Sirpur Kaghaznagar in AP. Later in 1992, Balbhavan at Ballarpur was shifted to Kalmana village to give way to the minor seminary. Fr. George Pullankav CMI was the first Rector of the minor seminary (1991-93). He was replaced by Fr. K.D Chacko (1993-95). Fr. Ephrem Nariculam from the Archdiocese of Ernakulam succeeded as Rector (1995-2002). Fr. Thomas Punchayil took charge as Rector on 01 April 2002. In June 2000 the Seminary was shifted to the present campus with the new name Sant Vianney Gurukul at New Daheli Village, which is 6km. away from Bishop's Home. Last batch of students from Adilabad Diocese completed the course in 2002-2003.

XI. LINK BETWEEN CHANDA MISSION AND KANJIRAPALLY DIOCESE

The Synod of Bishops of the Syro-Malabar Church has decided to establish a partnership relationship between the dioceses within Kerala and those outside Kerala. Accordingly the mission diocese of Chanda has got the diocese of Kanjirapally as its partner diocese.
